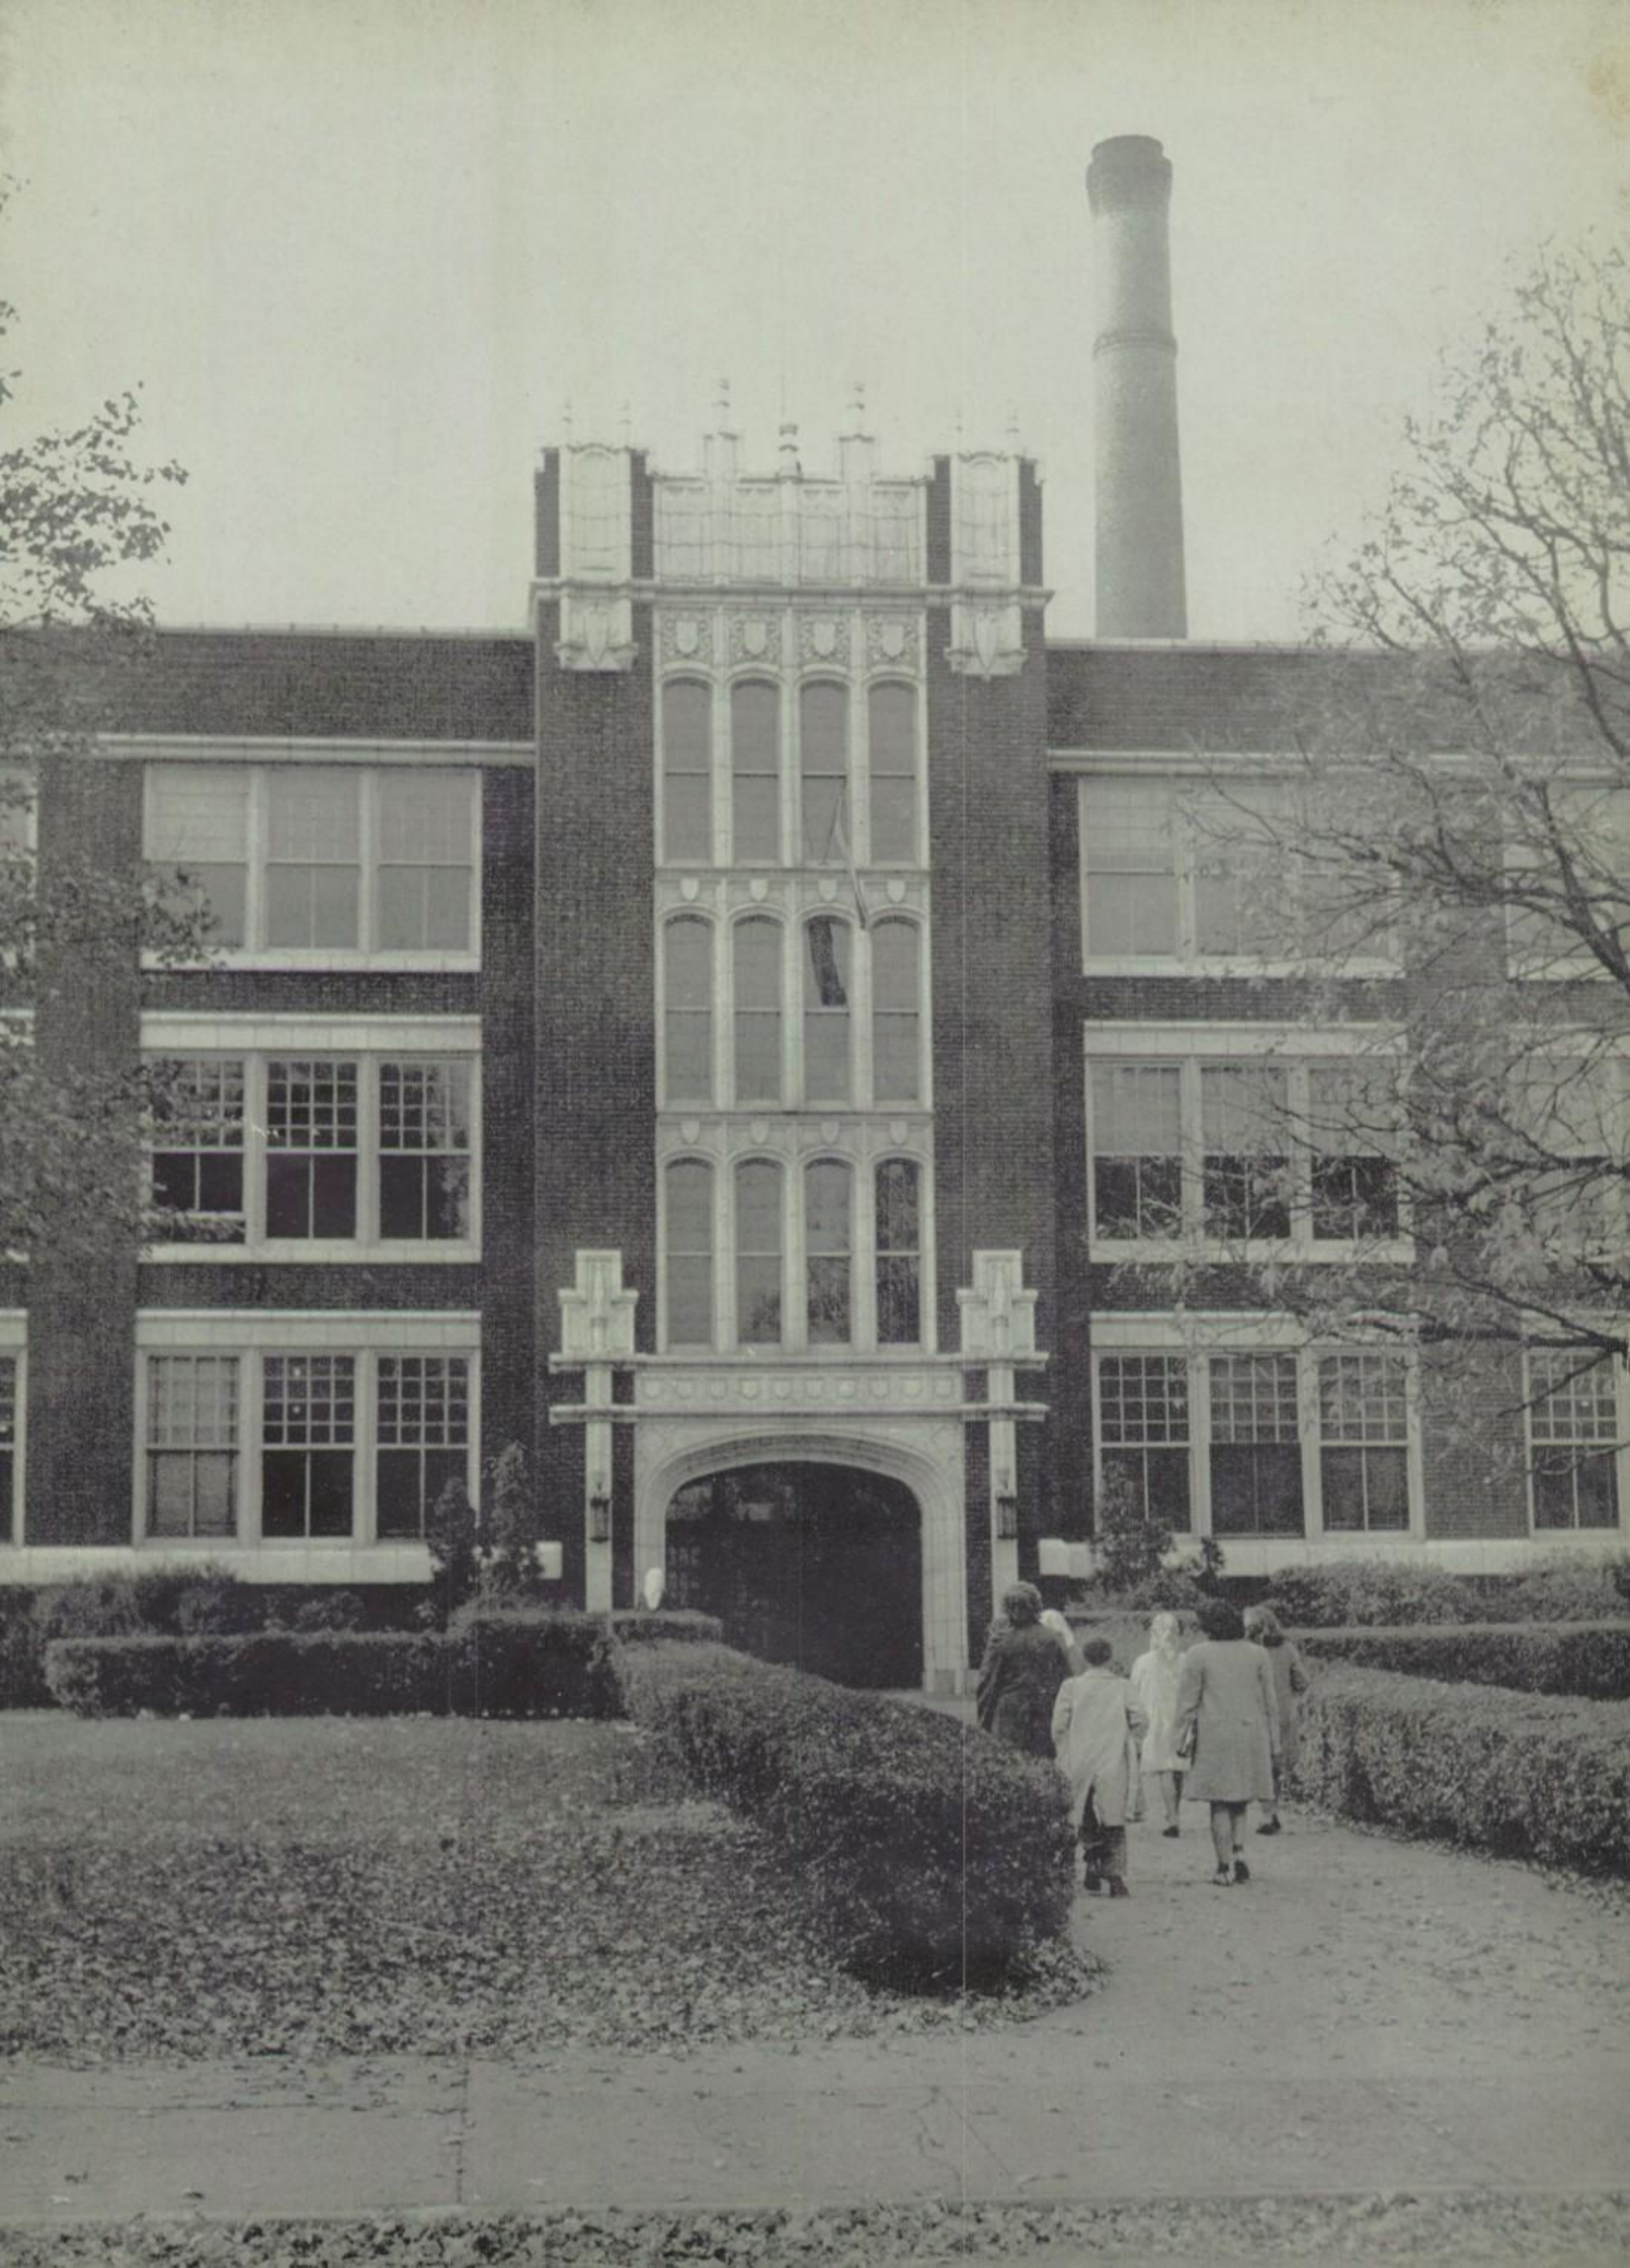
"Peace hath her victories,
No less renown'd than war."

—MILTON

Using the pages of this book as a median we wish to show how the students of Defiance High School are shouldering their responsibilities in the achievement and maintenance of world peace.

The engraving for this book was done by Pontiac Engraving and Electrotype Co., Chicago, Illinois.



Our responsibi

And thus we work toward a better world, secure in peace and world fellowship.—The home is the focal point of the universe. Girls learn the fundamentals in our thorough Home Ec courses. —We help our government by systematically purchasing stamps and bonds, the sale of which is sponsored by the National Honor Society under the direction of Miss Morse.—Career women have their place in our new world order too. In our typing classes we see some of the future business women.—Seniors seriously discuss world problems.

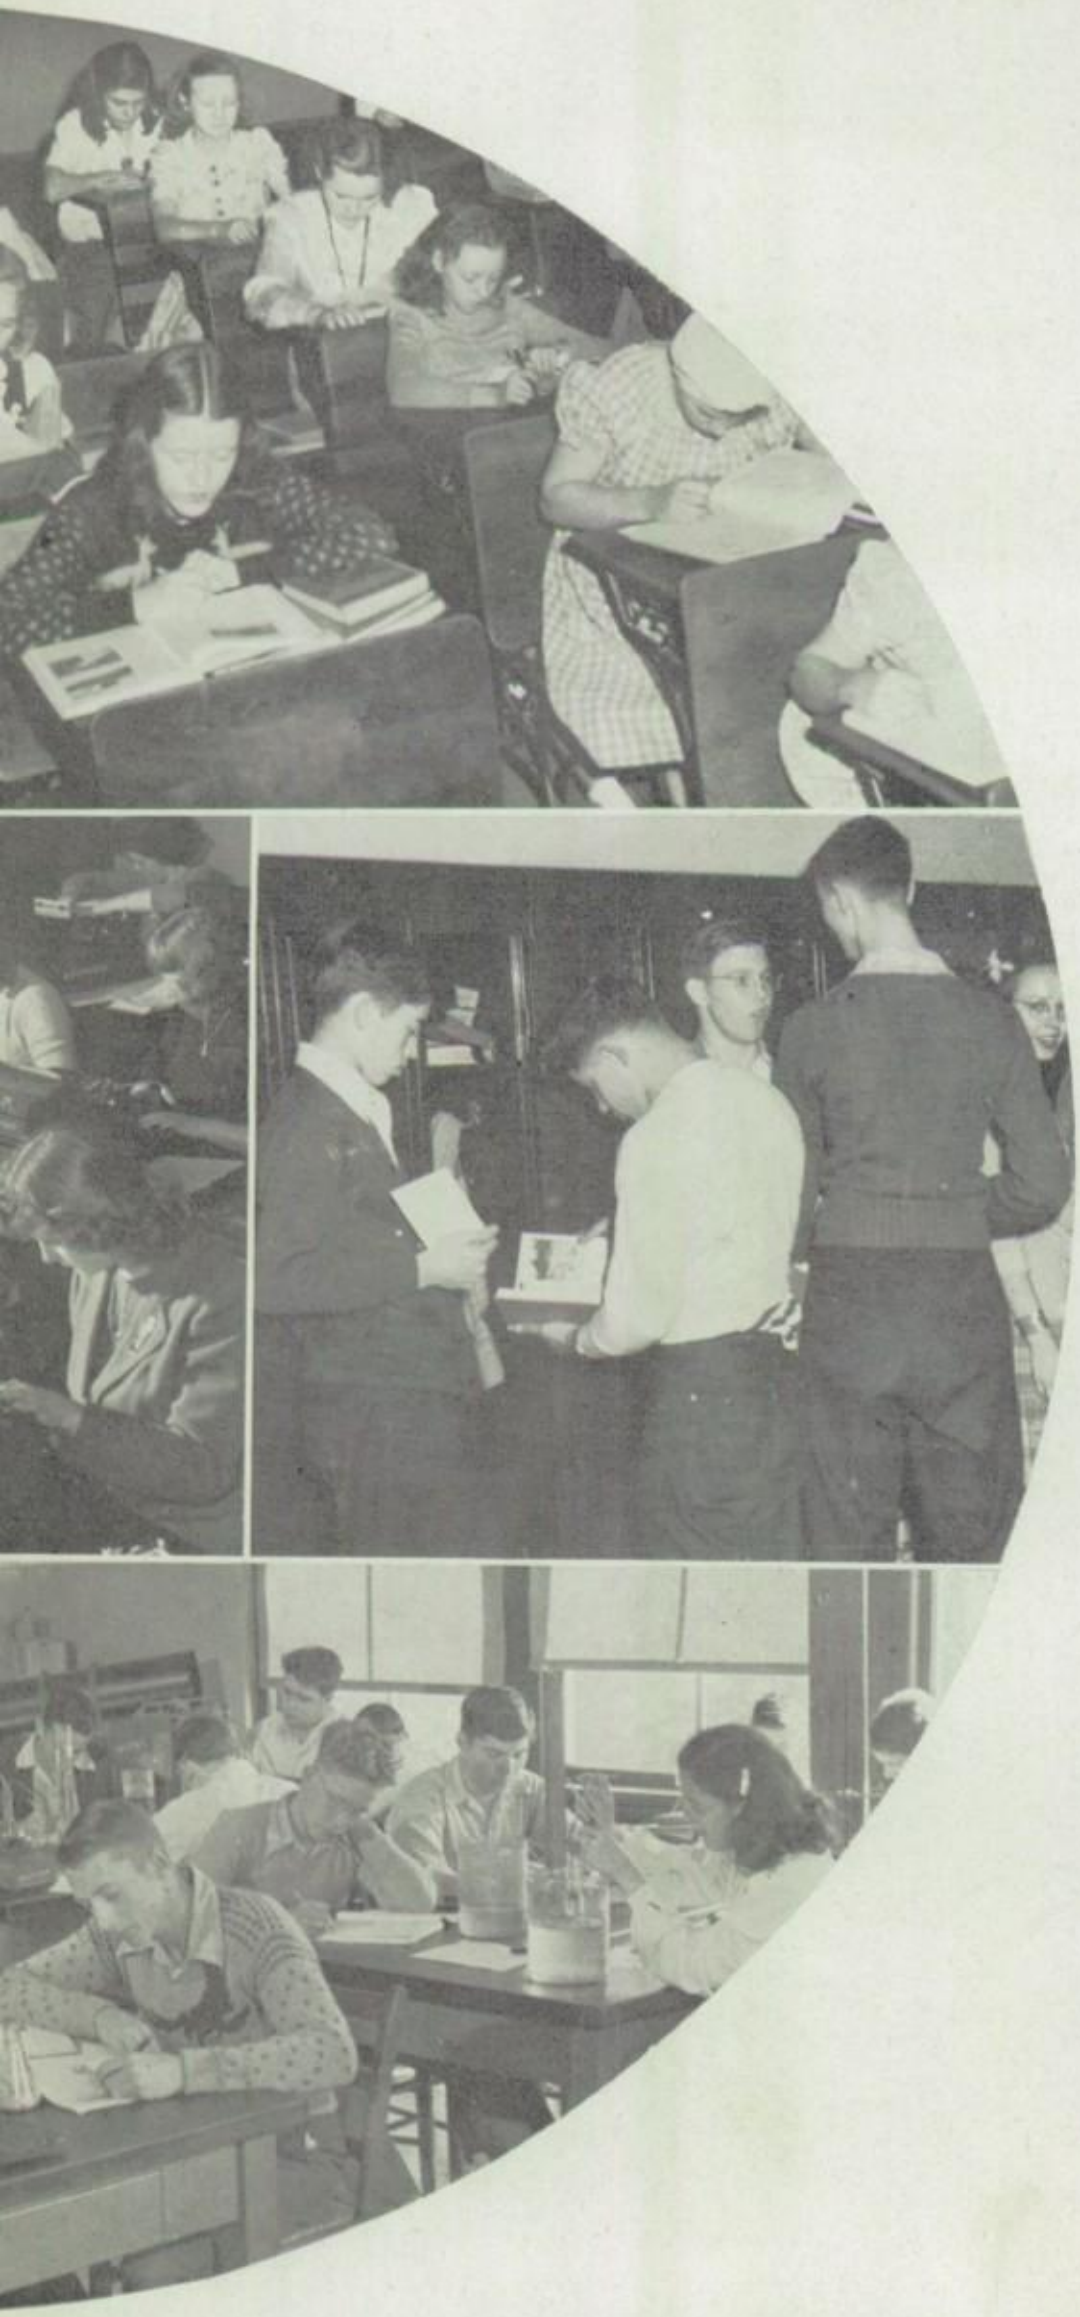
ty — The World



We learn . . . we study . . . we, the future citizens of the world. We plan, we discuss as we are entitled to in our democracy. But no longer do we look only to our shores. Across the expanse of oceans stretching north, south, east and west we see our responsibility and pray our generation may be the citizens of the world. Science has changed our ideas in this year more than any other factor. For this we must have a background. In our labs at DHS we make our humble start.

ADMINIS

Our Leaders . . .

To these civic-minded men of our community we cannot express enough appreciation for the time which they have devoted to our school system of which we are so proud. We realize how much it means in their busy lives. To each and every one we say thanks.

Row 1: Harold L. Schlosser; Harry W. Schlosser, president; Roger F. Small.

JOE DEMYAN

Mr. Demyan was more than initiated into his new position as Assistant Principal this year. He also taught the social problems classes and coached our championship football and basketball teams. In his spare time he has listened with a most understanding ear to our attendance excuses and to our many other problems. We, the students, thank Joe for all he has done during the current nine and one-half months of school.

MILDRED BONHARD

Whenever we run to the superintendent's office in desperation we are greeted with a cheery smile from Mildred. Nothing is ever too much trouble. To us, she is tops.

F. H. BODE

We welcome the chance of saying "thank you" to our able Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Bode. He has been ever faithful in performing his duties as well as giving good and needed advice to the students. We wish him continued success which he most certainly deserves.

O. H. FARRAR

We greet Mr. Farrar as a new member of the administration of Defiance High School having come here this year from Mt. Gilead. His readiness in listening to our problems and giving helpful and sound advice has more than endeared him to the students of Defiance High School. We hope he decides to stay a long time.

Seniors

As we look back over our four years at Defiance High School our minds are filled with recollections which are a mixture of work and fun. We began our careers as green freshmen under the guidance of Mr. Blue, our adviser. That year we elected as our leaders Lois Stenger, president; Bruce Derricotte, vice-president; Larry Manahan, secretary; and Evelyn Mayer, treasurer. We earned our way by checking hats and coats during the basketball season and enjoyed ourselves at a picnic and skating party at Power Dam Park. The next year we elevated ourselves to the place of experienced Sophomores. Mr. Fallon took over and we elected Gene Kershner our president with Bill McClymonds as vice-president. Bill Seyboldt served as secretary and Charles Stenger took in the money. Our main entertainment that year was skating parties and parties of various natures in the Community Room. At last we were sophisticated (we thought) Juniors. This was the year of our first big play, "June Mad." Mr. Hultz proved to be the guiding hand this time. Pauline Behrman, president; Ralph Jacobs, vice-president; Bruce Derricotte, secretary; and Gene Hoeffel, treasurer were chosen at the elections. Our financial project was the concessions at all basketball games. A big party at Perry's Pleasant Place along with the usual skates gave us the social background. And then here we are Seniors! To Miss Carter we extend our greatest appreciation for guiding us through our last year at D. H. S. The year was packed full of excitement. We enjoyed a most eventful hayride. We worked hard taking care of the concessions at the football games and put on a most successful play, "Moonlight for Herbert". We chose as our officers Larry Manahan, president; Gene Kerschner, vice-president; Portia Peters, secretary; Lois Weakley, treasurer. And so ends four great years as the class of 1946.

Having completed three successful years as students of Defiance High School the class of 1947 looks forward to spending their final year training to take their place in a peaceful world rather than one torn by the torments of war. They remember when they were Freshmen that their class officers were Ken Fisher, Lois Hoffman, Dick Skees and Jim Bohlman, with Mrs. Deindoerfer as their able adviser. When they were Sophomores they chose Tom Rath, Paul Grosenbacher, Mary Lou Ott and Phyllis Neher to guide them. Mr. Dally gave them able advice that memorable year. This year they have chosen Jack Goshia, Jim Bohlman, Helen Woodward and Joan Spicer, with Mr. Hultz as adviser, to be their leaders in their many activities.

Seventh Grade

Under the guidance of Mr. Senger, their adviser, the energetic Seventh Grade put in a full and profitable year which was their initiation in the activities of our high school. They chose as their class officers Gerald Rosenberger, Nancy Hughes, Beth Goodrich, Robert Jones. Their Halloween party in the Community Room proved to be most exciting, and the postponement of their Christmas party until after the holidays due to the closing of school did not dampen the yuletide spirit. We are proud to have them in our midst and are looking forward to greeting them as full-fledged members of DHS of which we can be proud.

World Organization Begins . . .

A new era has dawned upon the earth, an era of peace. From the bloody battles of war we have emerged scarred and battleworn, but victorious. We now stand upon the threshold of a united world of peace.

In the classrooms and corridors of Defiance High School, day by day, we learn new things which prepare and educate us to take our place, when the time comes, as citizens of the world. Our clubs and school organizations greatly aid us in our search for new thoughts, purposes, and ideas.

Our student council is perhaps the most important of all our school organizations for it is the representative governing body of our school. Here we learn our first lessons in world government. However, each club and organization has a distinct purpose which places it apart from the rest and causes it to have an individual value.

The National Honor Society has played its part well through its tireless effort in the sale of stamps and bonds in winning the war. It has now stepped forth as a leader in winning and holding the peace in the same manner.

We do not neglect our cultural training either, by which we hope to add beauty to this new world of peace. We have our Writers Club and Latin Club as contributions to this important side of a full life. Science holds its place in our plan through our Senior Science Club, business in our Commerce Club, agriculture in our Future Farmers of America. The academic life is considered by our College Club, which tries to guide all those interested in higher education into the proper school and course.

The general assembly of our training school seems to be the Boosters and our Hi-Y. Being the largest organizations, public opinion is formed and broken through their influence.

The time has come when we must leave these preparatory organizations and take our place in the world of actuality and fact. We are reluctant to go, but already the gates of childhood have closed behind us; we cannot turn back.

FUTURE FARMERS of AMERICA

The backbone of America—the farmers—get off to a fine start at DHS through their association with the Future Farmers of America. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Gray, this group each year holds a chapter procedure judging contest for livestock and awards are made for the best entries. After this they go on in the district and state contests. This group, in connection with the agriculture classes, gives a more than adequate background for our future farmers. The officers for the year were as follows: president, William Holman; vice-president, James Osborn; secretary, George Newton; treasurer, Olen Webb; sentinel, Jesse Brown; reporter, Ray Essex.

Row 1: Lavon Mack, George Newton, Jesse Brown, Jim Cupp, Ralph Butler, William Weber, John Weber, Mr. Gray.

PROJECTION PUPS

One of our busiest and most appreciated groups in our school is the Projection Pups. They not only afford entertainment for the students of Defiance but supplement our education as well. Under the supervision of Mr. Senger this group shows all the movies in the school and efficiently takes care of all the necessary equipment.

BLUE AND WHITE STAFF

Yes, the war has ended, but there will always remain one war cry at Defiance High School. That of the nervous editors of the Blue and White, "Hurry, the paper must be out by Friday." The answer, no matter how much work is yet to be done, is always the same. "Don't worry, it will be."—and it always is.

This year the Blue and White news staff has had the splendid assistance of the office practice class in the typing and printing of the paper which has helped to relieve one less burden from the staff.

Row 1: Lois Beebe, Hazel Young, Marilyn Butsch, Mary Lou Cooper, Maxine Bauer, Jean Coffman, Arlene Ashbacher, Jean Palmer, Helen Goslyne, Wilma Baringer, Miss Seibel.

ANNUAL STAFF

The 1946 Annual, the first one to be published since peace was declared, is trying to show you how the students of Defiance High School are helping to maintain the peace in the world of tomorrow in which these students will play such an important role.

Under the efficient guidance of Miss Young, as editorial adviser, the annual is now able to make its appearance. Portia Peters, the editor, relaxes with Maxine Bauer, assistant editor; Pauline Behrman, business manager; and Jean Dederman, assistant business manager. The annual staff hopes this book will bring back pleasant memories of days at school and of this victorious year.

COLLEGE CLUB

The College Club is open to any senior student who plans to enter college. Its aim is to acquaint its members with the necessary facts to enable them to make a wise choice of the college they will attend and to give them the general information of what college education really means. During the year representatives from various colleges spoke to the club members. This club was sponsored by Miss Kehnast with Jean Dederman, president; Bill Hayden, vice-president; Joan Rufe, secretary; and Lois Beebe, treasurer assisting her.

SENIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The great age of science demands the attention of our Science Club. Under the watchful eye of their adviser, Mr. Hultz, they performed many interesting experiments. Each month they entertained at one work meeting and one social meeting. The officers elected by the organization were Portia Peters, president; Frank Clark, vice-president; Joan Rufe, secretary; Pauline Behrman, treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is made up of fifteen percent of the Senior class and five percent of the Junior class. The members are chosen for their scholarship, leadership, school activities, and character. The purpose of the club is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils of D. H. S. Under the efficient supervision of Miss Morse the project of the club was the sale of Victory Stamps and Bonds throughout the Defiance Schools. This year's officers were: president, Gene Kershner; vice-president, Jean Palmer; secretary, Helene Nolan; treasurer, Joan Rufe.

HI-Y ORGANIZATION

Clean living, clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship—these are four great principles of the Hi-Y organization. This year under the leadership of president, Bill Seyboldt; vice-president, Bill Hayden; secretary, Gene Kershner; treasurer, Forrest Wortman; and reporter, Gene Hale, the Hi-Y had a most interesting year. Some of the highlights being the initiation of the new members and the joint meeting with the Boosters. One of its projects was the sale of programs for the Class-A basket ball tournament. The club was most ably led by Mr. Oxley.

LATIN CLUB

The purpose of the Classica Societas is to increase interest in the value of classical culture and to arouse a desire to make this learning available to others. This purpose under the capable leadership of Miss Schlegel, was carried out through the social activities of the club, such as prepared reports, debates, discussions, playlets and games. A Christmas party was held with refreshments and the exchange of Christmas greetings in Latin. The officers were: president, Audrey Vandemark; vice-president, Rita Shira; secretary, Helen Goslyne; treasurer, Pat Mack.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls Athletic Association under the capable leadership of the council and the adviser, Miss Grant, have played their part during the year by developing co-operation, good sportsmanship, encouraging originality, and creating a love of good, wholesome fun among the girls. With these thoughts in mind, the GAA girls are beginning the practice of world co-operation in the contacts which they make from day to day.

THE WRITERS CLUB

The Writers' Club, a comparatively new organization, holds an important place in the peaceful world of tomorrow. It encourages creative writing, both prose and poetry. Membership has greatly increased since its first year showing that with encouragement the students of Defiance High School can become the writers in the world of tomorrow.

Miss Carter is their able adviser and for assistance, she has Bob Schroeder as President; Lois Hoffman, Vice-president; Maxine Bauer, Secretary and Treasurer; and Carmah Lawler, editor.

A Capella Choir

We have attained our goal at last! The goal of every chorus member at Defiance High School — a member of the A Cappella Choir. This organization consists of eighty Junior and Senior members chosen from the glee clubs and Mixed Chorus. The Choir is a busy organization, making many appearances in programs throughout the year. Among them were the Christmas program, the County Music Festival, and at several assemblies for the student body. Defiance is proud of this organization which has brought so much praise to our school through the tireless efforts of Mr. McDonald, its director.

THE BAND

What is a football game without a band? Ah! you are right. Nothing. And what is a football game without the Defiance band? Right again. The same answer. This year our notable band under the leadership of Mr. Moore not only graced the field for all home games, but added the gala touch to two out-of-town games as well. They also took part in the National Education Week program, Defiance County Music Festival, Lima Center Music Festival, and the Spring Concert. A selected group also added to the cheering at all basketball games. The strutting drum major for this group was none other than Wayne Snyder, who was glamorized by the following majorettes: Donna Meyer, Gretchen Murphy, Bonnie Fronk, and Thelma Tittle. The officers selected for the year were: President, Gene Tittle; Secretary-Treasurer, Frank Clark; Librarians, Donna Meyer and Gretchen Murphy; Uniform Custodian, Bonnie Fronk; Reporter, Thelma Tittle; and Student Director, Ed Nihiser.

MIXED CHORUS

In preparation for next year's a capella choir, the fifty-four sophomore, junior, and senior boys and girls of the Mixed Chorus have been working especially hard this year. They meet every Friday under the direction of Mr. McDonald.

Although the Chorus does not appear in public very often, it is a very essential part of our music department because it helps to acquaint the members with the foundations of music and of four part singing.

Row 1: Ann Sproul, Joan Breckler, Shirley Wanley, Elizabeth Horn, Pat Clark, Clara Wirick, Jim Stailey, Ray Wells, Winfield Hall, Larry Skees, John Berthold, Martha Beardsley, Jean Weisenburger, Bernadette Peiffer, Doris Memmer, Mary Jean Cordray.

MAIDS OF MUSIC

This year we welcomed a new musical organization in our school, the Maids of Music. This group is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who are also members of the Girls Glee Club and the Girls Ensemble. This group meets each Monday after school and so far have made no public appearances this year.

Row 1: Margaret Webb, Berta Smith, Janet Gallup, Marie Funk, Shirley Wanley, Ann Sproul, Lettie Parker, Marnie Ducatt, Rita Batt, Doris Memmer, Thelma Roehrig, Marilyn Derrow, Mary Underhill, Mr. McDonald.
Row 2: Lois Gessner, Joan Breckler, Donnie Meyer, Jeannine Schutt, Donna Heidepriem, Elizabeth Horn, Germaine Marchal, Norma Birchmeier, Rita Schira, Marilyn Dirr, Alberta Froelich, Bonnie Cook, Barbara Foust.

MEN OF MUSIC

"The Men of Music", our dance band, have gained renown far and wide this year. They have furnished music in the Community Room for our own dances which have been held after football and basketball games and also for dances in several neighboring towns and at the Skylark Club.

The band was reorganized this year by Eddie Nihiser and not only consists of boys from the high school, but also has two of the fairer sex giving the right touch of glamor to the organization.

Their playing and the singing of their vocalist, Gret Weidenhamer, has given us many hours of pleasure.

Row 1: Gret Weidenhamer, Jean Dederman, Glen Bayless, Audrey Vandemark, George Ensign, Charles Stenger, Gene Rhamy.
Row 2: Frank Clark, Gene Tittle, Ed Nihiser, Neil Pohlman, Bill Haase.

B BAND

We may be young, we may be off key at times, but you can't beat us when it comes to pep and ambition. Our B-Band serves chiefly as an apprentice group for the A-Band. Each member cherishes in his heart a secret desire to advance into the senior group. This year this lively organization participated in the National Education Week program and also in the Spring Concert. They elected as their officers Glen Bayless, President; Jerry Behringer, Student Director; Sue Seyboldt, Librarian; Dick Smith, Treasurer; and Barbara Pickering, Attendance Officer.

MADRIGAL

The three-year Madrigal, under the direction of Mr. McDonald, has made many appearances during the year before local groups such as the Rotary and the Federated Women's Club. Their numbers are all of a light, difficult nature that is typical for Madrigal groups. These eighteen members are selected from the A Capella Choir and are its representative in all appearances.

Row 1: Bill Seyboldt, Lee Grogg, Helen Gallup, Lois Stenger, Pauline Behrman, Maxine Bauer, Mary Morgan, Mary Lou Cooper, Dean Stork.
Row 2: Ed Griswold, Gene Rhamy, Thelma Weibel, Ed Nihiser, Joanne Lourash, Marilyn Doenges, Bob Slocum, Larry Romaine, Tom Rath.

GIRLS ENSEMBLE

This group of nine lovely junior and senior girls was selected from members of the A Capella Choir this year instead of the Sophomore Girls Glee as in former years. They have made several appearances in concerts and organizations of the city. One of their best numbers is "The Lass With the Delicate Air."

Evelyn Mayer, Audrey Vandemark, Ann Small, Ann Nickels, Lois Hoffman, Jo Ann Burns, Carmah Lawler, Lois Weakley, Sally Squire.

Lee Grogg, Gene Rhamy, Ed Griswold,
Ed Nihiser.

BOYS' QUARTET

This small organization of only four people is one of the most active of its kind in DHS. This year they have appeared in assembly programs and concerts, several times before the Rotary and also out of town. Edwin Griswold, first tenor, is the only veteran of this quartet, since this is his third year. All the others are serving their first year.

On September 14, the 1945 Bulldogs started the season with the second highest score in the state by over-running Paulding 40 to 0 on our home field. Van Wert, on September 21, in one of the best games of the season, fought hard for a 9 to 0 victory over the Defiance eleven again on our home field. On September 28, we journeyed to Napoleon in a drenching rain to give them a 14 to 0 trouncing. October 5, we again returned to our home field confident of taking our old rival, Bryan. After considerable fumbling and Bryan making the first score, we came back victorious by a score of 7 to 6. Because of heavy injuries from previous games, the Bulldogs lost their next game 2 to 6. Our opponent in this contest was Wauseon; the date, October 12. With a long way to travel but with most of our team back in shape, the Bulldogs defeated the Red Men of Fostoria, October 19, by a score of 6 to 0. Our next venture was with Liberty Center on October 25. After being pushed aside by Liberty with a six-point lead, Defiance rallied to an 18 to 6 victory. The Bulldogs, putting up a good fight against Findlay, November 2, lost 14 to 0 when Findlay travelled around our ends for two touchdowns. In the last game of the season, November 9, the undefeated Montpelier eleven was out-played in a breath-taking game by the Defiance eleven to tally a 6 to 0 score, dividing the league championship between the two teams.

VARSITY TEAM

Although the Defiance High School Bulldog's season record was nine victories against eight defeats, they had a rather successful season. Winning eight out of ten games in league play, the Bulldogs chalked up the first N. W. O. L. championship since 1943. Starting the season off with a record-breaking score against Paulding (90 to 13), the team won eight out of the first nine games. Beginning the 10th game the Bulldogs ran into trouble and won only one victory of the remaining eight games.

We can't say this championship team didn't do its best by looking at the record and all in all everyone granted it was a successful season.

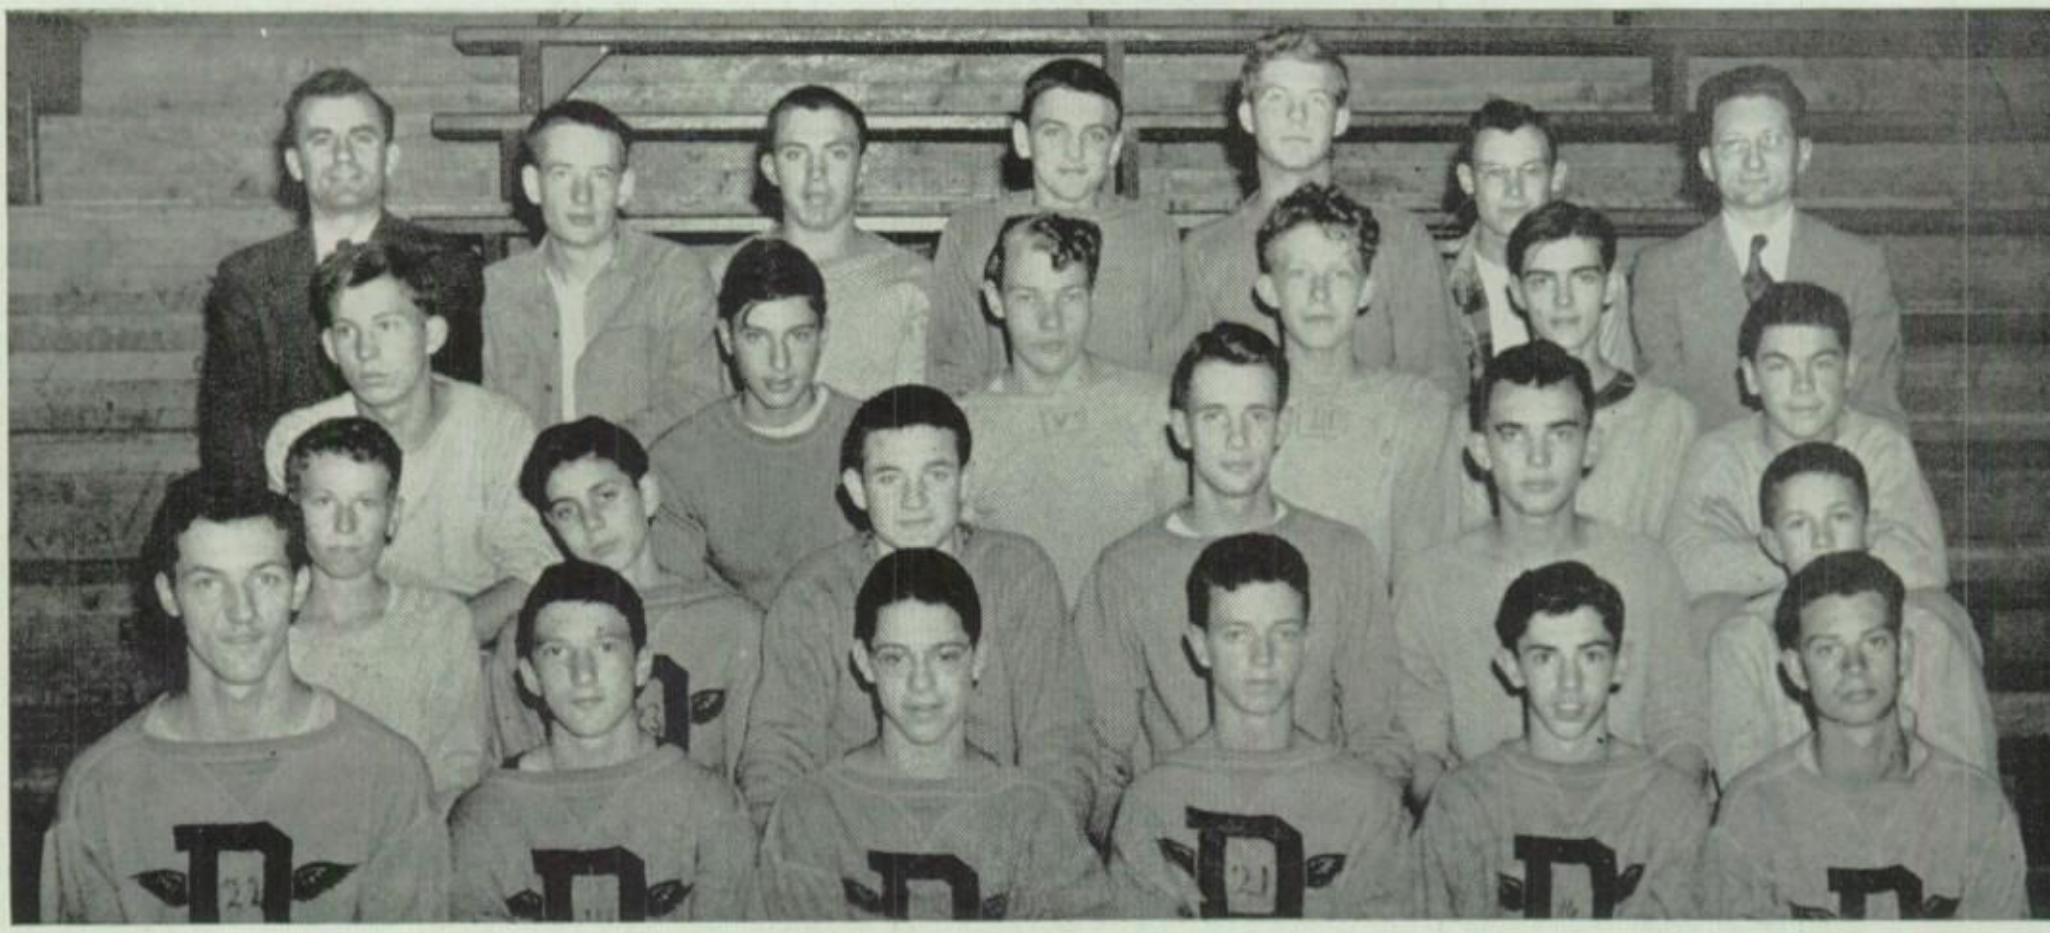
With a new and larger team, coached by Mr. Hoeffel, our junior high basketball program got under way this year. First came Sherwood, who defeated us 32 to 25, which didn't make things look so well. But the Bullpups made up for their loss by outplaying Wauseon, 15 to 19. They were now on their way to victory. They even beat the tenth grade 22 to 23. Then they took on the Freshmen and beat them 10 to 11 just to show they meant business. Then they journeyed to Wauseon and again defeated them 13 to 19. Next to fall was the Farmer team, 13 to 22. Then came Ayresville, whom they defeated with their highest score of the season, 15 to 37. Next they met Bryan in a sensational game which ended in our favor with a score of 7 to 34. But things were just too good and the Freshmen defeated them 16 to 14. So to prove themselves, they came right back with revenge to take the Freshmen 18 to 27. Now the Bullpups went out for blood and outdribbled Sherwood 16 to 18 in an overtime game. By serving as a training school for future varsity teams we see great hopes for the future varsity quintets.

For the first time since 1942, Junior High football was again being played at Defiance High School. The team certainly showed some promising material for the future, but because of misfortunes such as lack of equipment and arrangements to play with other schools, the squad was unable to have much activity. Their one big game was with the Varsity Reserve, which they lost 26 to 0. Next year they have five league games scheduled. We hope from now on to maintain this group as a training school for our Varsity team.

Track



First Row: Tom Melton, Roger Shawley, George Ensign, Jim Bohlman, Jim Hale, Ken Mack.
Second Row: Darlene Hohenberger, Leo Mangette, Lowell Tope, Dave Waldron, Bill Seyboldt, John Froelich.
Third Row: Gene Bowers, Gerald Froelich, Walter Spangler, John Conroy, Bill Hayden, Dick Beebe.

At Montpelier—C. Shawley comes in first in the 880 yard run. Tom Melton taking the 220 low hurdles. Ken Shawley comes in on the 440 yard dash. Below—David Waldron breaks the record in the broad jump. Hayden takes a high jump. Fred Greiser completing the one mile run.

Last year the blue and white thinclads, under the efforts of track coach Clare Hoeffel, set a pace hard to match as they gave competitors stiff opposition in the year's four dual and triangular meets and the N. W. O. A. league meet.

With a total of sixty-five boys on the squad, the Bulldogs opened the season on April 6 at Montpelier by taking second place with 51 points, while Montpelier took first with 64½, and Napoleon third with 33½ points. At the next meet, a triangular affair at Bryan on April 13, the Bulldogs did not fare quite so well, as they ranked third with 34½ points as they were topped by Bryan with 64 and Wauseon with 51½. The next meet, on April 20, found Defiance giving stiff competition to Montpelier as they were nudged out by the slim margin of 4⅔ points with a total of 56⅔ to Montpelier's 61⅓. At the next, and last, regular meet at Bryan on April 27, the Bulldogs again went down fighting as Bryan scored 63 points to Defiance's 55.

The Bulldogs, however, stepped into the limelight at the N. W. O. A. league meet at Montpelier ahead of Montpelier and Bryan, as Defiance nudged Montpelier out of second place by coming in first in the mile relay, the last event of the meet. The meet ended with Wauseon on the throne with 61 points, Defiance as runners-up with 52½ points, with Montpelier and Bryan dangerously close with 50 and 49½ points respectively, and Napoleon practically at the starting line with 9 points.

And last, but far from least, we had popular Jean Weidenhamer representing Defiance as our Track Queen at the league meet.

QUEEN LOIS WEAKLEY

Home Coming

Each year the football team elects a Homecoming Queen and attendants to reign over the Homecoming game which was played this year with Bryan. Her Majesty for 1945 was Lois Weakley and her attendants were Gretchen Weidenhamer and Ann Sproul. Queen Lois was crowned at a pep meeting in the gym during the afternoon preceding the game. Ralph Jacob, the captain of the football team, placed the golden crown upon her head.

Just before the initial kickoff the band, with impressive fanfare, announced the approach of her Majesty and Court. After the Queen and her attendants reached the throne, she presented the captains of the opposing teams with a brand new football to be used in the game. The team then honored the court by winning over Bryan 7 to 6. The evening was climaxed by a big Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Blue and White.

Gret Weidenhamer, Jim Bohlman, Lois Weakley, Ralph Jacob, Tom Schlosser, Ann Sproul.

. . . MAY DAY

The traditional May Pole with the accompanying festivities is an important event each year at Defiance Hi. The king and queen of the festivities are picked by the popular vote of the student body while the attendants are chosen by their respective classes. Paul Palmer and Barbara Kimberly were chosen to be the reigning pair last spring and were attended by John Deindoerfer and Joan Mootz, seniors; Jim Hale and Mary Lee Woodward, juniors; Bob Slocum and Gret Weidenhamer, sophomores; and Tom Schlosser and Mary Lou Greutman, freshmen. The king and queen were crowned by Jeanne Scott, president of the Boosters and Dave Waldron, president of Hi-Y, whose organizations were joint sponsors of the activities. To complete the festivities students of Brickell School presented "The Little Princess" and the May Pole was wound by girls of the Seventh Grade. To complete the evening the court was honored at a formal dance following the ceremonies in the gym.

The Beginning

"Now isn't she cute! Did you ever see such darling dimples?" Such are the remarks you hear around DHS once a year when the annual baby contest is held. For a full week the dignified seniors are displayed to the people of Defiance in a downtown window. But not as they are now. Oh, my, no! but as they were during the first year of their life. They are then turned over to the scrutiny of Mr. Bode, Mr. Farrar, Mildred, and Mrs. Lanning, who, after much ohing and ahing, decide who was the cutest way back when. This year their decision rested with Ralph Jacob, king; Joan Rufe, queen; Bud Imber and Imogene Rath, their royal attendants; and Lois Stenger, the trusty crown-bearer. They were then introduced to the students at the yearly assembly which officially opens the sales for The Defiance. They reign over the festivities dressed in the traditional bonnet and carrying the pacifying rattle.

Much "monkey-business" as LoAnn Bistol tries to convince the student body to buy a 1946 Defiance in their assembly to start off the subscription drive. Bob Schroeder gives Donna Wrigley a piece of her mind as he attempts to compete with Dunninger. The chief of the Gremlins, Ed Nihiser, instructs his fellow clansmen to raid the Defiance office. Gremlins are Marilyn Doenges, Ed Griswold, Helen Goslyne, Dean Stork, Arlene Ashbacher, Bill Seyboldt, Evelyn Mayer, and Duane Wholf.

Mrs. Tracy	Joan Rufe
Mr. Tierney	Frank Clark

The Seniors this year chose as their play the comedy "Moonlight for Herbert". The action centers around Herbert and Vincent, two sixteen year old boys who are concentrating their efforts on building a float to enter in a parade. Herbert's mother has better ideas, however, for her son and invites the noted music critic, Felix Heidler, to hear him play the piano. In lugging in a huge timber he manages to crush his finger which puts an end to his musical career for the present. Herbert's father is having business trouble as Mr. Tierney is succeeding in underbidding contracts, particularly the new school building. Meanwhile, Herbert becomes enamoured by the lovely Jean Brossert who promises to grace the float in the parade. The idea of the float makes fun of the new building in a way not intended by Herbert. Tierney is finally shown up as the crooked contractor he is and Herbert gets his chance to go to New York and play for the famous critic.

Junior Play

Row 2: Gene Hale, Ed Bahmer, Ann Nickels, Elaine Wanley, Bob Slocum, Myles Musgrave.

The action in "Where's Laurie", the choice for this year's Junior play, centers around the newcomer, Laurie. Immediately upon arriving in town she has succeeded in capturing the attention of all the local swains. In order to assure themselves of a good time at the prom, Jinx Taylor sets up a plot with some other girls of the high school to get rid of Laurie that particular night. Before they have a chance to fulfill their plot Laurie disappears. Where she is and the excitement of looking for her provided much good action in the play. Her appearance in the end after a joy ride and the general disgust of the male members of the cast for her made the ending agreeable to everyone.

Laurie struts her stuff. Jim Bohlman, Gene Hale, Ed Bahmer, and Bob Slocum focusing all their attention on the irresistible Laurie.

Jim Bohlman, Helen Gallup, Joan Spicer, Elaine Wanley, Peggie Brown, Myles Musgrave, Ann Small.

Stage hands—Bill Moore, Larry Romaine, Tom Rath.

I, Leona Wiseman, will my steady companionship to Jack, he needs it worse than any underclass man would.

I, Jean Wittmer, will my plumpness to the girls that would like a little of it and I think a lot of them around this school could use some.

I, Mary Lee Woodward, will my cheerleading ability to my understudy, Tom Schlosser.

I, Donna Wrigley, will my sleek walk to another slick chick.

I, Joyce Wyrebaugh, will my place on the cheerleaders' bench to someone with the love of sports that will make that love heard through cheering.

I, Hazel Young, will my height to Janice Schlembach.

Prophecy

As Madam Zoochi sat gazing into her crystal ball, I waited impatiently for the information she was about to give. The information that everyone is interested in—the future. She said she could see figures assembling and recognized one as Marilyn Doenges, a great pianist. She was accompanying Jack Seibel, the violinist, on his tour of the world. Jack was known throughout the land and one of his best fans was Fredona Wallen, who, with several of her friends, Pat Smith, Mary Ann Hull, Norma Kennedy, and Jean Coffman, went to every one of his concerts and swooned and applauded the loudest.

Ah! another vision! A traveling salesman. Who was it? Why, Bill Seyboldt. There he was, trudging along after a long, tired day of selling Fuller Brushes. When he came upon a cheerful-looking house, he knocked at the door and a little housewife answered. It was Mrs. Larry Manahan, the former Evelyn Mayer. She looked rather tired. I suppose her six little offsprings kept her busy. After she recognized Bill as one of her former schoolmates, she told him that Larry was president of the Tiddly-Winks Company. Bill bid her good-bye and went on his way.

Madam Zoochi saw a sign which read, "Joan Rufe and LoAnn Bistol, the great ballet team, now showing. Get your tickets now." At their evening performance many prominent people were seen. Such as the famous John Powers models, Donna Wrigley, Arlene Ashbacher, Lois Beebe, Laura Weidenhammer, Rosalie Fromer, Lois Weakley and Helen Hedrick. The great artist, Bud Imber, accompanied by his co-partner, Joanne Lourash, also was there. Helene Nolan, president of the A and P, was sitting in a box seat, and in the next box was the famous criminal lawyer, Jim Hale, well known for his conviction of "Gene Bowers, Baby Snatcher." The foreign correspondent, Tom Gray, with a few of his many secretaries, Thelma Tittle, Louise Bahmer, Sylvia Ball, Wilma Baringer, Donna Bostelman, Joan Burns, and Willene Shoup, also was present. Across from them sat Ed Nihiser, champion wrestler, with his manager, Pat Arend. In the same box were the professional football players, Bruce Derricotte, Bob McKeen, and Dick Schlembach. Jean Dederman, president of the Bubble Gum factory, was sitting in the side section cracking her gum with her fellow business associates, Mary Ella Lewis, Dolores Louys, and Naomi Snodgrass. Behind them sat the prominent Betty Max ,chairman of the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Sailors," with some of her many members, Maxine Bauer, Mary Lou Cooper, Bonnie Fronk, Joan Kiser, Dolores Lantow, Mary Morgan, Betty Rost, Pat Ryan, Mary Lee Woodward, Audrey Vandemark, and Hazel Young. Madame Zoochi said that another figure was coming into her crystal ball. It was Fred Parker, owner of the world's largest Ford factory. Don Beiswenger was president and Duane Wholf was the vice-president. Madame Zoochi saw a house, a large house built on a hill, with a sign in the yard reading, "Home for the Aged, Feeble, and Ancient Rug Cutters." You inquired for rooms of Lawrence Evritt, superintendent. Mr. Evritt, with the aid of Janet Flint, Thelma Carnahan, Nancy Flory, Janet Smith, Dick Snyder ,and Olen Webb had a very lovely home to offer to the aged. Sue McFadden, great newspaper reporter, has been recently decorated for her outstanding news article, "How to Stay Thin Without Eating." She has a very efficient staff, consisting of Jesse Brown, Lambert Burkhart, Bud Young, Ken Wirick, and Francis Shock.

The famous explorer, Ken Mack, has just returned from the Arctic bringing with him his bride, an Eskimo girl. His best friends, Bob Maag and Bud Kroeckel, professors at Smith College, entertained him. They expected to have some well-known celebrities such as Gene Hoeffel, of Warner Brothers' Studio, who was taking Fred Astaire's place; Charlie Stenger, that great yo-yo player. Charlie won four out of five games in his last tournament. Ken Williamson, owner of a banana plantation, was there accompanied by Rita Hazelswart, the author of "A Bush Grows in Brooklyn." It has created the greatest sensation in the field of literature for some time. The Mayor of New York and acting Fire Chief, Charles Shannon, was there with his fiancee, Jean Palmer, the great New York stage actress. Jim Barber, coach at Notre Dame, was expected to be there with several other coaches of various colleges, such as Bill McClymonds, Frank Clark, Jim Deindoerfer, and Ralph Jacob. Several movie starlets were present from Hollywood, including Pauline Behrman, Helen Lang, Helen Goslyne, Phylis Hale, Betty Tittle, Jackie Hees, and Lois Stenger. Portia Peters, who was Miss America of 1956, lent her charm to the party.

Entertainment was provided by the great magician, Dick Stailey, who, with his able assistants, Glenna Justus and Juanita Paxton, expected to give an enjoyable performance. The famous acrobats, Rita Peiffer, Florence Markly, Allene Osman, and Betty Weaver, performed along with the tight rope walkers, Donna Tittle, Lee Grogg, Bill Hayden, John Rhamy, and Donna Limbaugh. Some trapeze performers, Charles Marihugh, Fred Schwarz, Bud Shuler, and Art Parrish kept us entertained with their outstanding skill, after which nurses Marilyn Butsch, Virginia Hartung, Joyce Hirsch, and Lois McBride administered first aid to them. The song and dance team composed of Leona Wiseman and Jack Sandys and a barber shop quartette made up of Bob Schroeder, Leo Mangett, Gene Kershner, and Doc Tittle, lent their melodies to the party.

The famous torch singer, Joyce Wyrebaugh, sang, accompanied by a group of chorus girls Mary Layne, Imogene Rauth, Donelda Schaffer, Myrtle Schackow, and Theresa Swary. Ed Griswold provided an enjoyable evening with his impersonations.

Madame Zoochi said that the figures were fading away and her crystal ball was getting very cloudy but once more she saw a figure she couldn't make out. Oh, yes! It was the national sorority, "Huba Huba, Huba," with Marilyn

A busy place—our library.

Raible acting as president. After a unanimous vote, the sorority elected John Conroy as the man they would like to be shipwrecked with. The meeting came to an abrupt end when Gene Brannon rushed in and informed the girls that there were nylon hose at the City Market.

The vision fast became cloudy and Madame Zoochi failed to get another response from her crystal ball. I thanked her for her services and walked away, well satisfied with the information I had gained.

And so to school!

The Year 1945-46

12—End of the first six weeks. Golly, already? Skylark Club officers elected today. We went to Wauseon tonight, but we lost, 7 to 14.

15—College Club met.

16—The Student Council met today. Sophomores went on a hayride. So did the Seniors! (Ask some upperclassman about that.)

18—Informal pictures taken for the annual.

19—Went to Fostoria and beat them 6 to 0. Good old Bulldogs!

22—Junior play tryouts began today.

25—Assembly given by the Choir. Dad's Day at the game. We took Liberty Center, 18 to 6.

Our organist—Gene Rhamy.

26—Hooray for the teachers! They had a meeting in Toledo, and we didn't have school.

29—The Eighth Grade held a Halloween party tonight. The Freshmen had a skating party. The Hi-Y also met. My! Such activity!

30—The Boosters had a Halloween party.

NOVEMBER

1—The Seventh Grade entertained with a party.

2—Bulldogs traveled to Findlay. Lost 14 to 0.

6—The Commerce Club went all out for a bang-up party.

8—The Clare Tree Major company presented "The Little Princess" in the auditorium this afternoon.

9—Game at Montpelier. Tom Schlosser makes sensational run to win the game for Defiance 6 to 0. We tied for league championship.

12—The American Legion presented the Armistice Day assembly today. There were paddles and other implements at the Hi-Y initiation tonight.

14—Oh, to be able to sing! The Choir got out of a couple of periods to present an assembly at Ayresville.

15—Assembly with Dusty Miller entertaining. In the evening, the music department presented a program in honor of National Education week.

22 and 23—No school. Aren't you glad we have Thanksgiving?

28—The Junior play cast gave a short (too short) assembly.

29—More group pictures were taken for the annual. Opening night of "Where's Laurie".

30—Group pictures still were taken for the annual. Now do you know where Laurie is? Tonight was the last night of that supercolossal Junior play.

Baby Court—In front, Lois Stenger, crownbearer. Back —Bud Imber, attendant; Ralph Jacobs, king; Joan Rufe, queen; Imogene Rauth, attendant.

DECEMBER

3—Community concert in the auditorium. Dalies Frantz, guest artist.

4—We won our opening basketball game here with Paulding, 90 to 13.

7—Flash! Gremlins have invaded D.H.S. It's the Annual Assembly. Joan Rufe and Ralph Jacob are queen and king of the babies. Imogene Rauth and Bud Imber are their respective attendants, with Lois Stenger carrying the crown.

10—The Freshmen had their Christmas party.

17—2 x 2 is what? Oh, me, the Seniors take the math test. School and all other activities are called off because of the flu epidemic.

JANUARY

4—The team went to Montpelier. Score was 31 to 30 in our favor.

7—That long Christmas vacation at last ended. Fun while it lasted.

8—Basketball game at Scott High, Toledo. We lost, 45 to 53.

11—Assembly given by Don Lea. Fred Schwartz developed water on the brain. Game with Wauseon. Score—40 to 38 in our favor.

14—Seventh Grade gave a party.

16 and 17—Ooooh! here we go. Semester exams.

18—Game with Napoleon at Defiance. We won 33 to 50.

21—Rubinoff gave an assembly this afternoon. Did we like him? And how! Especially could he play "Don't Fence Me In"?

22—Basketball game here with Liberty Center. We won 46 to 30.

24—Sophomore party tonight.

25—Glen Morris gave the asembly. Gene Kershner flew blind to Salt Lake City.

29—The team went to Van Wert. The score was 48 to 42 in their favor.

FEBRUARY

1—Montpelier came here to play basketball and I mean basketball. We lost 39 to 45.

4—Hi-Y met tonight.

5—Toledo Scott played here. They won 44-40.

8—We went to Liberty Center. Foo! We lost 32 to 33.

11—Yum—yum! The Band had their banquet at Memorial Hall. Now Eddie knows how he looks when he plays trumpet.

12—We went to Hicksville and lost 44 to 46. Better luck next time.

15—Bryan came here for a basketball game. We won 45 to 22.

22—Whee! No school! Washington's birthday.

26—Senior play tryouts.

29—Senior play cast announced.

MARCH
